Traditional Chen Family Taijiquan

Chen style Taiji (Tai Chi) is widely acknowledged as the ancestor of all other Tai Chi styles and it incorporates both martial and health benefits. This class introduces the Chen Taiji form, silk-reeling exercise and Qugong, which form the foundation of the Tai Chi system. Chen style Taiji involves powerful stances, stomping and explosive releases of energy, but can also be performed slowly and gracefully. Tai Chi promotes lifelong physical wellness, improves the mind-body connection and physiological functions, helps reduce stress and improves concentration and the immune system. Silk-reeling exercises increase the mobility of body joints and improve body coordination and strength. Ages 16+.

Tennis - Adult Level 1

Students will learn the basics of rally, the tactical 5 priorities of tennis, and your own 5 goals. Students begin to learn how to read opponents, and how to anticipate what may be coming back to you in response. The focus of this class is to get you playing and rallying as quickly as possible. Rally skills are the main criteria for any of the clinics and classes. The goal is to assist students in that effort. Classes and clinics are set up in logical progression that allows you to learn skills as well as cover basic doubles movements and responsibilities. Ages 16+.

Please Note:

- Instructor: Barry Poole, USPTA.
- Class held at Hall Park.
- All participants are required to bring a racquet and tennis balls to each class meeting. Students should wear athletic shoes and comfortable clothing.
